

LOREM IPSUM

---

Book Title

DOLOR SET AMET

THE BEAR DETECTIVES

Will they solve the case?

Farmer Ben

Will he get his pumpkin back?

The missing pumpkin

Where can it be?

The Spooky Stranger

Who can it be?

Papa Bear
and Snuff

Will they be much help?

Will the Bear Detectives get their bear?

Help!

My pumpkin won first at the fair.

Now I can't find it anywhere!

Do not worry,
Farmer Ben.

The BEAR DETECTIVES
will find it again!

Your prize pumpkin stolen?
Never fear.

Great Detective Pop is here!
I will find it.

You will see.

Just watch
my old dog Snuff and me.

“Lesson One.
First look around for any TRACKS that are on the ground.”

We'll catch that crook.

We'll show you how.

Snuff and I will catch the . . .

. . . cow?

Say! Look down there!
Do you see what I see?
There's a WHEELBARROW TRACK going by this tree!

A good detective
writes things down:
"Checked out a cow,
white and brown."

The track ends here.
What shall we do?

We'll look in the book.

It says,
"Lesson Two,
Look all around for another clue."

Humf! You can look around as much as you please.
I'm going to follow these carrots and peas . . .

. . . and eggshells and corncobs and other stuff

This must be the way!
Let's go, Snuff!

MUNCH MUNCH CRUNCH
GOBBLE

Listen, Snuff!

Hear that munching?
That pumpkin thief is pumpkin lunching!

O.K., thief!
You've munched your last.
Your pumpkin-stealing days are past.

Look here! Look here,
Papa Bear
We found a new clue over there.

You see we found a PUMPKIN LEAF . . .

Aha!

You've found a pumpkin leaf.
Joust show me where you found this leaf.
Then I will find that pumpkin thief.

The pumpkin thief!
I've found him, Snuff!
Let's grab him quick.
He sure looks tough.

Be careful, Pop.
Lesson Three in the book says, "Before you leap, be sure to look."

Hang on, Snuff!
Hold him tight!
This pumpkin thief can really fight.

Did you find any clues
in that scarecrow, Pop?
Shall we keep on looking,
or shall we stop?

Hmmmmmmmm . . .
Checked out a cow,
three pigs in a pen,
and a scarecrow owned by Farmer Ben Found some tracks
and a pumpkin leaf.
Still haven't found that pumpkin thief.

Look! By that haystack!
I see something blue!
It's the First-Prize Ribbon.
That's a very good clue!

A haystack!
The perfect place to hide.

I'll bet the thief is right inside.

Pumpkin thief,
don't try to run
Your pumpkin-stealing days are done!

But, Papa . . .

I was trying to say,
I don't think the thief is in THAT hay.

Hmmmmmm . . .
Ben's haystack is another spot where the pumpkin thief is not.

Say! Look over there!
Look in that door!
PUMPKIN SEEDS
all over the floor!

He's in the barn! This is it!
Hand me that detective kit.

I'll snap on these Handcuffs.
I'll take him to jail.
Pumpkin thief,
it's the end of the trail.

Old Snuff,
this may be tough.

It looks like we've caught a whole GANG of crooks

Hmmmm . . .

Checked out a cow,
brown and white.

Checked out a scarecrow
after a fight

Checked out a haystack.

Three pigs in a pen . . .

Put the cuffs on Farmer Ben's hen.

Found some tracks,
a ribbon, a leaf . . .

some pumpkin seeds,
BUT STILL NO THIEF!

Small Bear, I guess you better look at what it says there in your book.

Lesson Four-- here's how it goes--
"A good detective
will USE HIS NOSE!"

Hmmmmmm . . .
Pumpkin seeds,
pumpkin shell-- and . . .
aha!
I smell a PUMPKIN SMELL!

COME AND GET YOUR PUMPKIN PIES!

The pumpkin was pied by Mrs. Ben.

The case is solved.
Good work, men!
The Bear Detectives
have done it again!

MMMMMMM!
My dear, you and I will SHARE first prize ME for the pumpkin, and YOU for the pies!

